

Course syllabus

International Office	course synabus
Term / year of study when the course is delivered	Study programme	International Office
Term / year of study when the course is delivered Cycle	Course code	IOSS23IAEC
Cycle 1st cycle (Bachelor) & 2nd cycle (Master) ECTS credits / contact hours 28 Course type Lecture with integrated project work (ILV) Prerequisites none Language of instruction English Course content This course provides the most important information on and insights into Austria. A country that has a lot of history and scenic beauty to offer. In addition to historical, political and geographical facts, students will gain a broader impression of the various influences that have shaped Austrian society and its cultural and national identity. Austrian values, traditions, customs and ways of life are discussed in detail. Differences or similarities will be discussed. Students continuously reflect on their experiences and become aware of their own cultural conditioning. During an excursion, students can deepen their Austrian experience. By the end of the course, students can: • describe major geographical, historical & political aspects of Austria • characterize the Austrian people and their way of life • describe, understand and explain Austria's culture, traditions and customs • reflect on their experiences during their stay in Austria • compare and contrast their country with Austria in terms of its people and cultural values Learning methods Learning is supported through interactive discussions, collaborative and small-group exercises, workshop and excursion Assessment methods & criteria Participation in discussions, presentations, written tasks Will be provided in class	Course title	Inside Austria: Exploring a New Culture
Teaching units 28 Course type Lecture with integrated project work (ILV) Prerequisites none Language of instruction Course content This course provides the most important information on and insights into Austria. A country that has a lot of history and scenic beauty to offer. In addition to historical, political and geographical facts, students will gain a broader impression of the various influences that have shaped Austrian society and its cultural and national identity. Austrian values, traditions, customs and ways of life are discussed in detail. Different aspects of Austrian culture are explored and cultural differences or similarities will be discussed. Students continuously reflect on their experiences and become aware of their own cultural conditioning. During an excursion, students can deepen their Austrian experience. By the end of the course, students can: describe major geographical, historical & political aspects of Austria characterize the Austrian people and their way of life describe, understand and explain Austria's culture, traditions and customs reflect on their experiences during their stay in Austria reflect on their experiences during their stay in Austria compare and contrast their country with Austria in terms of its people and cultural values Learning methods Learning is supported through interactive discussions, collaborative and small-group exercises, workshop and excursion Assessment methods & criteria Recommended reading / learning resources Will be provided in class		every semester
Teaching units Course type Lecture with integrated project work (ILV) Prerequisites Inone Language of instruction English Course content This course provides the most important information on and insights into Austria. A country that has a lot of history and scenic beauty to offer. In addition to historical, political and geographical facts, students will gain a broader impression of the various influences that have shaped Austrian society and its cultural and national identity. Austrian values, traditions, customs and ways of life are discussed in detail. Different aspects of Austrian culture are explored and cultural differences or similarities will be discussed. Students continuously reflect on their experiences and become aware of their own cultural conditioning. During an excursion, students can deepen their Austrian experience. By the end of the course, students can: describe major geographical, historical & political aspects of Austria characterize the Austrian people and their way of life describe, understand and explain Austria's culture, traditions and customs reflect on their experiences during their stay in Austria compare and contrast their country with Austria in terms of its people and cultural values Learning methods Learning is supported through interactive discussions, collaborative and small-group exercises, workshop and excursion Assessment methods & criteria Participation in discussions, presentations, written tasks Will be provided in class	Cycle	1st cycle (Bachelor) & 2nd cycle (Master)
Course type Lecture with integrated project work (ILV) Prerequisites none English Course content This course provides the most important information on and insights into Austria. A country that has a lot of history and scenic beauty to offer. In addition to historical, political and geographical facts, students will gain a broader impression of the various influences that have shaped Austrian society and its cultural and national identity. Austrian values, traditions, customs and ways of life are discussed in detail. Different aspects of Austrian culture are explored and cultural differences or similarities will be discussed. Students continuously reflect on their experiences and become aware of their own cultural conditioning. During an excursion, students can deepen their Austrian experience. By the end of the course, students can: describe major geographical, historical & political aspects of Austria characterize the Austrian people and their way of life describe, understand and explain Austria's culture, traditions and customs reflect on their experiences during their stay in Austria compare and contrast their country with Austria in terms of its people and cultural values Learning methods Learning is supported through interactive discussions, collaborative and small-group exercises, workshop and excursion Assessment methods & criteria Participation in discussions, presentations, written tasks Will be provided in class	ECTS credits / contact hours	3 ECTS
Prerequisites Language of instruction English This course provides the most important information on and insights into Austria. A country that has a lot of history and scenic beauty to offer. In addition to historical, political and geographical facts, students will gain a broader impression of the various influences that have shaped Austrian society and its cultural and national identity. Austrian values, traditions, customs and ways of life are discussed in detail. Different aspects of Austrian culture are explored and cultural differences or similarities will be discussed. Students continuously reflect on their experiences and become aware of their own cultural conditioning. During an excursion, students can deepen their Austrian experience. By the end of the course, students can: • describe major geographical, historical & political aspects of Austria • characterize the Austrian people and their way of life • describe, understand and explain Austria's culture, traditions and customs • reflect on their experiences during their stay in Austria • compare and contrast their country with Austria in terms of its people and cultural values Learning methods Learning is supported through interactive discussions, collaborative and small-group exercises, workshop and excursion Assessment methods & criteria Participation in discussions, presentations, written tasks Recommended reading / learning resources	Teaching units	28
English	Course type	Lecture with integrated project work (ILV)
This course provides the most important information on and insights into Austria. A country that has a lot of history and scenic beauty to offer. In addition to historical, political and geographical facts, students will gain a broader impression of the various influences that have shaped Austrian society and its cultural and national identity. Austrian values, traditions, customs and ways of life are discussed in detail. Different aspects of Austrian culture are explored and cultural differences or similarities will be discussed. Students continuously reflect on their experiences and become aware of their own cultural conditioning. During an excursion, students can deepen their Austrian experience. By the end of the course, students can: • describe major geographical, historical & political aspects of Austria • characterize the Austrian people and their way of life • describe, understand and explain Austria's culture, traditions and customs • reflect on their experiences during their stay in Austria • compare and contrast their country with Austria in terms of its people and cultural values Learning methods Learning is supported through interactive discussions, collaborative and small-group exercises, workshop and excursion Assessment methods & criteria Recommended reading / learning resources This documents and society and scene and people and their stay in Austria Vill be provided in class	Prerequisites	none into Austria. A country that has a lot of history and scenic beauty to offer. In addition to historical, political and geographical facts, students will gain a broader impression of the various influences that have shaped Austrian society and its cultural and national identity. Austrian values, traditions, customs and ways of life are discussed in detail. Different aspects of Austrian culture are explored and cultural differences or similarities will be discussed. Students continuously reflect on their experiences and become aware of their own cultural conditioning. During an excursion, students can deepen their Austrian experience. By the end of the course, students can: describe major geographical, historical & political aspects of Austria characterize the Austrian people and their way of life describe, understand and explain Austria's culture, traditions and customs reflect on their experiences during their stay in Austria compare and contrast their country with Austria in terms of its people and cultural values Learning methods Learning is supported through interactive discussions, collaborative and small-group exercises, workshop and excursion Participation in discussions, presentations, written tasks Will be provided in class Will be provided in class	Language of instruction	English describe major geographical, historical & political aspects of Austria characterize the Austrian people and their way of life describe, understand and explain Austria's culture, traditions and customs reflect on their experiences during their stay in Austria compare and contrast their country with Austria in terms of its people and cultural values Learning methods Learning is supported through interactive discussions, collaborative and small-group exercises, workshop and excursion Assessment methods & criteria Participation in discussions, presentations, written tasks Will be provided in class 	Course content	into Austria. A country that has a lot of history and scenic beauty to offer. In addition to historical, political and geographical facts, students will gain a broader impression of the various influences that have shaped Austrian society and its cultural and national identity. Austrian values, traditions, customs and ways of life are discussed in detail. Different aspects of Austrian culture are explored and cultural differences or similarities will be discussed. Students continuously reflect on their experiences and become aware of their own cultural conditioning. During an excursion, students can deepen their Austrian and small-group exercises, workshop and excursion Assessment methods & criteria Participation in discussions, presentations, written tasks Recommended reading / learning resources Will be provided in class	Learning outcomes	 describe major geographical, historical & political aspects of Austria characterize the Austrian people and their way of life describe, understand and explain Austria's culture, traditions and customs reflect on their experiences during their stay in Austria compare and contrast their country with Austria in terms of its
Recommended reading / learning resources Will be provided in class	Learning methods
learning resources	Assessment methods & criteria	Participation in discussions, presentations, written tasks
Attendance Minimum Attendance 75%	_	Will be provided in class
	Attendance	Minimum Attendance 75%

Technology Health Media