

DIGICARE INNOVATION INTERDISCIPLINARY COURSE DIGITAL HEALTH & ENTREPRENEURSHIP

Transform Community Care at Global Scale

Join the DigiCare Innovation Interdisciplinary Course for higher-education students and help build accessible, equitable community care in oncology, mental health and chronic disease. Developed by experienced academic educators with the business sector, the course* will help you close competency gaps in digital health and entrepreneurship.

* Available in multiple languages via your browser's automatic translation from English

Online for global access

Equivalent to 2 ECTS

Learning outcomes based on a competency-based needs assessment

(Digital Health Competencies for Medical Education and the European Entrepreneurship Competence Framework)

8 modules, including artificial intelligence in healthcare; digital identity, safety and security; ethical and sustainable thinking

Progress at your own pace; modules unlock as you go

Interactive content with optional resources

Hands-on tasks grounded in real-world healthcare

Quick checks at the end of each module

Free certificate of participation on completing all requirements within 7 weeks

Connect health and innovation!
Sign up now by scanning the QR code

