Master-Admission

Start of studies in winter semester 2025/26

The MultiMediaArt master's program provides advanced skills for the conception, design, implementation and management of creative design projects. MultiMediaArt stands for the networking of different disciplines. In addition to the design focus on audio, film or communication design, you can also specialise in producing.

Take the opportunity to get an impression of our degree program, the projects and the students. The university-wide events such as Info Saturday and Open House are ideal for this.

All documents must be submitted online at fh-salzburg.ac.at/en/study/online-application

1. Important dates

All dates can be found on our website

fh-salzburg.ac.at/en/study/ct/multimediaart-master/dates-deadlines

The most important date is the application deadline. The online application must be completed and sent on this day. Approximately two weeks after this date, you will receive either an invitation to a personal interview or a rejection. The interview usually takes place the following week. The exact dates for the admission interviews can also be found on our website. A maximum of two weeks later, you will then receive either an acceptance, a rejection or the notification that you are on the waiting list.

2. Admission to the course

To be admitted to the MultiMediaArt master's course, you must meet the following entry requirements:

- University degree or completion of an equivalent course of study at a recognized post-secondary educational institution in Germany or abroad. You can find more information on this on our website: admission-requirements-for-master-programmes
- Proof of ECTS credits in core subject areas required for the master's course
- Mastery of the English language (at least level B2)

3. Admission procedure

The admission procedure for the 2-year MMA master's degree program consists of two mandatory phases:

- 1) Online application on the FH Salzburg website including upload of application documents
- 2) Personal interview or, if travel to Salzburg is not possible, via video conference via MS Teams

You will receive the result of the admission procedure (acceptance, rejection or waiting list) by email.

Please see the following pages for details on the individual steps in the admission procedure. We will be happy to answer any further questions you may have by email: office.ct@fh-salzburg.ac.at

3.1. Online-Application

Please fill out the online application at fh-salzburg.ac.at/en/study/online-application completely and upload all the required documents. If you want or need to submit documents later, you can log back into the online application portal.

The online application is only possible during the period mentioned above. After the specified period, no online applications can be recorded.

3.1.1. Required documents

- Bachelor's degree certificate (can be submitted by October 31 at the latest)
- Proof of English level B2
- Copy of passport
- Portfolio and/or letter of motivation (depending on your choice of subject area, see below). If you are registered in the application portal, you will receive a notification by e-mail as soon as the upload is possible.
 - Portfolio: If you want to apply for Audio, Film or Communication Design, upload your portfolio in the application portal under "Upload application project" as a ZIP file (which should contain a PDF). Present at least three of your best creative works from the last few years. Describe in your portfolio the role you played in the projects shown.
 - Letter of motivation: If you want to apply for the Producing department, upload a letter of motivation. Describe in it why you want to study Producing and in which projects and roles you have worked so far.
- Curriculum vitae: You are free to choose the form of your CV. Languages: English.
- Choice of department: The form can be found in this info sheet on page 11.
- Proof of academic level: The form can be found on page 9 of this information sheet.
- Certificates of achievement/semester certificates incl. ECTS key: A minimum number of ECTS credit points in the subject areas required for the Master's degree program in MultiMediaArt must be demonstrated. A list of completed courses serves as proof. Information on this can be found in this information sheet from page 7 onwards. A copy of the transcripts of records/semester certificates must be enclosed.

3.1.2. Supplement for applicants with international qualifications

Applicants must have their documents not issued in Austria notarized before submitting them if there is no agreement under international law. Please refer to the information sheet of the BMBWF on the legalization of foreign documents in higher education to find out whether this is necessary in your case. You can find this information sheet on our FH website under this link:

fh-salzburg.ac.at/en/prospective-students/about-to-start-studying/admission-requirements-for-master-programmes

Applicants must also upload certifications and translations of the relevant documents:

- Bachelor's degree certificate
- transcripts of records and/or semester certificates incl. ECTS key

In the case of a provisional acceptance, these documents must be uploaded to the online application tool at fh-salzburg.ac.at/en/study/online-application

The FH Salzburg collects a deposit on the tuition fee from prospective students with previous education from a third country (all countries except EU, Iceland, Liechtenstein, Norway, Switzerland). Prospective students who take up studies at the Salzburg University of Applied Sciences will be credited the deposit paid towards the tuition fee (tuition fee and ÖH fee) of the first semester, otherwise the deposit will be returned. All further regulations can be found in the guideline for the deposit on tuition fees.

3.2. Interview

During the interview, you have the chance to get to know us, explain your motivation for studying and talk about your previous projects and/or professional experience. If you already have ideas for a master's project, we would love to hear about them.

The interview lasts about 15 minutes. During the interview, you have the opportunity to show other creative work (e.g. drawings, photographs, storyboards, screenshots from films or websites, audio files in the form of snippets or music streaming, etc.).

The interview is conducted by the respective department head and lecturers from the department.

3.2.1. Allocation of personal admission appointment

The personal appointment for the interview is assigned by the course. The invitation to the personal interview will be sent by email approximately one week after the application deadline. The interviews will take place approximately one week after that. The exact dates can be found on our website: fh-salzburg.ac.at/en/study/ct/multimediaart-master/dates-deadlines

4. Important to note

4.1. Data protection

Due to the applicable data protection regulations, information will only be provided directly to applicants.

4.2. References

No image material may be used in the portfolio that was not created by you. This means no photos, films, illustrations, etc. from other authors. An exception are photos that you cannot create yourself, such as the earth from the perspective of the moon or historical photographs. For such third-party material, please indicate the source and, if applicable, the author. Undeclared external material is considered an attempt to deceive and will lead to exclusion from the admission procedure. The same applies to ideas that are copied. Please also state the source(s) of any soundtrack used (self-composed and produced/other authors).

4.3. Exclusion from the admission procedure

The following criteria lead to exclusion from the admission procedure:

- Missing and/or incomplete online application
- Non-compliance with the formal criteria
- Attempted deception (e.g. no citation of sources, copied work, etc.)
- Discriminatory and/or violence-glorifying work
- Failure to attend the admission interview (e.g. by not showing up)
