

Practitioner

Lecturer

Researcher

Field of Work

- Children and Youth Services
- Young offenders
- Multi-problem families
- Handicapped children
- Refugees and migrants

- Universities of Applied Sciences
- Academy for educators
- Academy for special educators
- Postgraduate training
- Adventure education

- Adventure based learning in Children+Youth Services
- Teaching in higher education
- Quality in e-learning
- Life long learning

Methods

- Educational assistance
- Intensive educational care
- Social Work in court
- Systemic counseling
- Relationship building

- In class: Competence and activity
- Online: Moodle, OLAT, Mahara
- Blended learning
- Supervised practice
- Self-experience and supervision

- Qualitatively: Interviews and subsequent loud thinking
- Quantitatively: Factor analysis
- Practice research
- Participant observation

Specials

- Adventure based training
- Group education
- Sexual abuse and trauma
- Advocate work
- Key skills
- Concept development

- Award for excellence in teaching
- Socially and emotionally handicapped children
- Resilience and empowerment
- Integration and inclusion
- Epistemology

- Systemic approach to adventure
- Subjective theories within experiential training
- Study and academic success
- Quality-management in e-learning
- E-Portfolios as support for learning

Dr. phil. Martin Lu Kolbinger

Special Education Teacher (Munich)

PhD in Rehabilitation (Halle / Saale)

Adventure Educator (Outward Bound)

Study focus:

- > Psychology
- > Special Education (esp. behavioral problems)
- > Experiential Education
- > Lifelong learning
- > Media Education and E-Learning
- > Higher Education